NOMINATIONS FOR NAB HD RADIO
MULTICAST AWARD NOW BEING ACCEPTED

-- July 1 Entry Deadline --

WASHINGTON, DC -- The National Association of Broadcasters announced today that the nomination process for the NAB HD Radio Multicast Award is now open. The deadline for submitting entries is July 1.

Established in 2007, the award recognizes an HD multicast station at the forefront of creating unique, innovative or groundbreaking programming. The award will be presented during The NAB Radio Show, September 17-19, in Austin, Texas.

Stations must submit their entry online at www.nab.org/HDAward or contact Chris Suever (csuever@nab.org) at 202-775-3511 for additional entry information.

About The NAB Radio Show

The NAB Radio Show is the largest annual convention for radio. This year's show, Sep. 17- 19 in Austin, delivers a one-of-a-kind networking opportunity for station professionals representing all format and market sizes and is co-located with the R&R Convention. More information about The NAB Radio Show is available at www.nabradioshow.com.

Online registration will soon be available for news media reporters interested in covering the NAB Show.
